

Chateau Saint Jean

Region: Loire Valley Sleeps: 13

Overview

Welcome to the beautiful Chateau Saint Jean. This exceptional chateau rental was constructed in 1820 by the current owner's family and embodies everything a romantic French chateau should; elegant décor, awe inspiring towers and turrets and intricate stone masonry. It is located in a mature woodland setting with beautiful views to the east across the castles lawns, the local village and the 10 hectares of private parkland.

Chateau Saint Jean has an elegant and spacious interior and accommodates 13 guests in 7 luxurious bedrooms and 5 bathrooms. The ground floor is home to a modern kitchen, a spacious living room, the dining room and a charming salon.

Outdoors is a sizable heated swimming pool with pool house and a terrace with barbeque, perfect for al fresco dining on long summer evenings. The local village of Saint Jean is a just short, pleasant stroll from the chateau. 4 miles away is the larger town of Loches, rated one of the most magnificent medieval towns in France, which offers plenty of shops, restaurants, sights, music & theatrical events.

Facilities

Interior & Grounds

The chateau is both spacious and elegant with a modern kitchen, a living room, the dining room and a salon.

The chateau has 16 guestrooms in a variety of sizes and configurations, each with their own bath. These consist of a mix of suites and rooms, some large enough to accommodate seven, with living areas and lovely original features such as marble fireplaces. 11 extra full sized single beds can be added.

In the grounds there is a secure heated swimming pool with pool furniture and sun loungers. There is also a BBQ area and terrace, a table tennis table, volleyball equipment, free access to bicycles and private woodland parks ideal for walks. Locally there is tennis and golf (driving range) within 2 miles. St. Jean (500m) has the river Indre with a water fall that is very popular.

Location & Local Information

There is a bakery, a golf course and tennis courts within 2km of the chateau. The medieval city of Loches, voted one of the finest medieval villages in France, is 4km away. We have a local restaurant/routiers within walking distance, they serve from Mon-Fri lunch and dinner, presently 11 euros all inclusive (4 courses and wine).

The Indre River flows through the local village 1km away and is very popular for swimming (it has a small water fall). Our local restaurant serves lunch from noon and dinners from Mon-Friday.

There are many Historical Chateaux that are approximately 30 mins to 1 hr drive from the chateau. Loches is our bigger local town 4 km away. It is a historical citadel town with Chateau and Donjon to visit as well as open markets (2x weekly mornings for local produce), many restaurants, and during August they hold numerous events in the town including theatre, music and midnight markets.
