Facilities

Interior & Grounds

Lovely, peaceful and welcoming Villa divided over two floors. Downstairs there is a vast, bright lounge with French doors that lead onto the large garden. There are comfortable sofas to relax on, creating an ideal space for guests to be able to unwind and be together. Off of the lounge there is a large dining room and well equipped kitchen with an additional dining table.

Upstairs there are three charmingly furnished bedrooms. Enjoy waking up in the fabulous master bedroom with a double bed. The other bedrooms have both double and single beds available. There is a family shower room and wet room upstairs. WIFI internet access is available at the property.

Escape from the sun to the upstairs TV room with UK television and comfortable seating. French doors open onto stairs which lead down the terrace and pool area.

Domaine Horte has an exceptionally large garden with a river running through the bottom. The sun terrace provides a great space for alfresco dining with friends. Take a refreshing dip in the pool (5m x 10m), perfect for adults and children. There is plenty of space to bask in the sun or shade.

Location & Local Information

The beautiful region of Languedoc-Roussillon is filled with vineyards and sunflowers. Wine tasting classes are readily available including in the local village itself. You can easily catch a glimpse of The Pyrenees which are the perfect excursion.

The location is wonderful for visiting the many Cathar castles and the fairytale ancient city of old Carcassonne is a must for young and old alike.

The "rose" city of Toulouse makes a great day out and the Mediterranean beaches are little over an hour away. It's only 2 hours to the border with Spain!

Carcassonne

The fortified town of Carcassonne - a restored medieval fortress - is rich in culture. Domaine Horte is also very close to Mirepoix - a small town with a very wide square with some ancient timber-framed houses. It is well worth a visit for the weekly market which takes place on Mondays.

Other sites of interest include: St. Hilarire, which is only ten minutes down the road and has a beautiful Abbey, and Limoux, which is a carnival town always bustling with activity. During the summer months there is always plenty of activity. it is a great place to have a coffee and a croissant.
