Location & Local Information

Villa Tatiana sits in the north part of the marvelous Ionian island of Corfu.

A pleasant 15 min stroll down a hill brings you to Agios Stephanos, a quiet fishing village with an array of traditional Greek "tavernas", cafe's, little shops and supermarkets.

The closest beach is Avlaki (2.2km), an almost unspoilt Blu Flag bay suitable for families with small children.

Further recommended spots where to spend relaxing days in the sunshine are Kerasia (3.6km) and Kalami (9 km) beaches. Watersport facilities, sailing and windsurfing opportunities are also available.

To fully take advantage of all the beauties Corfu coast has to offer, we suggest hiring a boat (Agios Stephanos, Avlaki or Kalami) and get to explore the hidden treasures along the coast.

When you fancy doing some shopping or experiencing a lively nightlife, or getting fit playing tennis or going horse-back riding, head to Kassiopi (6km). This charming, little resort village a short drive from Corfu Town, is famous for its countless sandy beaches, watersports clubs, traditional tavernas serving mouth-watering local dishes and buzzybars.

Corfu town (36 km) seems like a fresco painting that has come to life. Liston's elegant arcades hang over the marble paved square where the locals gather for a cup of coffee or a drink. The old part, with its special design and quiet, narrow roads is the biggest preserved medieval town in Greece.

Boasting an abundance of natural beauty, stunning beaches and a vivid nightlife, Corfu is probably the most famous Greek island attracting thousands of visitors every year. Corfu also offers vast options for entertainment, with candlelit restaurants, romantic bars and vibrant nightclubs covering all tastes and styles.
